Visiting The Opera House

INTRODUCTION

We are going to watch a show at The Opera House.

The Opera House is a big theatre with 3 levels.

We can enter through the front entrance through the double doors.

INSIDE THE OPERA HOUSE - GROUND FLOOR

When we enter The Opera House we will come to the ground floor foyer.

There will be friendly staff at the box office on both sides of the stairs.

They can help with printing your tickets or answer any of your questions.

If we want food or drinks we can purchase them at the bar.

There are also bathrooms we can use located next to the box office.

ENTERING THE THEATRE - GROUND FLOOR

We can enter the theatre from the ground floor.

We can enter either side by walking past the box office and through the doors covered by large hanging curtains.

There will be friendly staff there taking tickets.

INSIDE THE THEATRE - GROUND FLOOR

Once we are inside the theatre there will be ushers to direct us to our seats.

We can leave the performance whenever we need to.

If we need wheel chair seats they will be close to the entrance on either side.

THE OPERA HOUSE - 2ND FLOOR

To get to the second floor we go up the stairs.

On the second floor is a lounge area we can sit down in.

There is a bar we can get food or drinks from in this level too.

There is also another bathroom located right next to the bar if we need to use it.

INSIDE THE THEATRE - SECOND FLOOR

To enter the theatre on the second floor we walk through the double doors framed by curtains.

There will be friendly staff to take our tickets and guide us to our seats.

The second floor of the theatre is high up and the stairs are steep.

LEAVING THE OPERA HOUSE

To leave The Opera House from the second floor we walk back down the stairs to the ground floor and through the double doors we entered through.

From the bottom floor we walk back through the theatre entrance to the ground foyer and out through the double doors at the entrance.
